

➤ Dialysis Technician

This role is responsible for working with multi-disciplinary team members and requires collaboration with nursing staff/senior technician/centre manager in the management of dialysis patients. The person can contribute to dialysis patient education on relevant aspects of care - Dialysis machine and procedures, medication, diet, fluid balance.

Dialysis technician require active participation in professional role development activities including continuing education, quality assessment and improvement.

Educational Qualifications: Diploma/Degree in Dialysis Technology