

➤ Senior Dialysis Technician

Senior Dialysis Technician should have the ability to shape the culture of the dialysis clinic. Strong communications skills, allocation of resources, mentoring, team building, and strategic vision are the key attributes of this role. This role is also responsible for the professional development of staff in the clinic, ensuring continuous education for the benefit of staff and patients. The incumbent in this role oversees and ensures efficient clinic operations, ensuring a high level of productivity and providing operational and technical direction.

Educational Qualifications: Diploma/Degree in Dialysis Technology